what a man is. Better far to be a melancholy saint than to be a mad sinner. Peace is harmony in the state that health is in the body.

Every good actor is a flower which will beautify our final home. Wisdom and virtue make the poor man rich and the rich honorable. Fools with bookish knowledge are children with edged weapons.

A Curious Love Letter, after a long consideration, and much meditation, on the great reputation you possess in this great nation, I have a strong inclination to become your relation. On your approbation of this declaration, I shall make preparation to re move my situation to a more convenient station, to profess my admiration; and if such an oblation is worthy of observation and can obtain commiseration, it will be an aggrandization beyond all calculation, of the joys and ex-

Sin: I perused your oration with much deliberation, and a little consternation, at the great infatuation to show a light foundation. But after examination and serious contemplation was the fruit of recreation, or had sprung from ostentation, to display your education of an enumeration, or rather multipli-cation, of words of the same termina tion, of great variation in their respective signification.

Cooking Oysters,

We suppose that nine out of ten housekeepers will contradict us in the statement that they do not know how to cook a dish of oysters. By the ordinary routine either the oysters are stewed and shriveled out of any semblance of themselves in shape, size, and flavor, or else the soup and 'thickening' has a raw taste. Here is the right meth od; try it once, and we'll warrant you won't need telling the second time .-Pick the oysters out of the juice, thickening the milk or water of which the soup is to be made, until thoroughly Paints, Oils, White & Red Lead, cooled; then drop the oysters in, and just as the cooled soup begins to show signs of simmering, empty out alto-gether, and you will have a rich soup and plump oysters, luscious enough to make you think you never tasted the real article before.

Skill and Patience. Do not be easily discouraged; remember the old story of the thirsty crow, that flew with joy to a pitcher he saw at a distance. But when he came to it he found the water so low, that with all his stooping and straining he was unable to reach it. Thereupon he tried to break the pitcher, then to overturn it; but his strength was not sufficient to do either. At last, seeing some small pebbles at hand, he dropped a great many of them, one by one into the pitcher, and so raised the Iron. Nails. God knows what keys in the human soul to touch in order to draw out its sweeter and most perfect harmonies .-They may be the straips of sadness and sorrow; they may be the loftier notes of joy and gladness.
